

Finished Construction & Noggin Requirements

SECTIONAL DOORS: up to 2490mm high. up to 5200 wide. NOT custom. NOT insulated.

1. Day Light Opening (DLO): as shown. Refers to height & width of finished opening with all jambs on and a finished, level floor
2. Internal face of opening must be completed on one flush plane
3. Solid noggin fixings points required as framing timber, concrete, block, or up to 6mm steel
4. Noggins must be set flush beneath linings, metal ceiling battens must not intrude through noggins
5. Finished Head Room Clearance (HRC): Standard 340mm. Restricted 300mm (or less, requiring additional hardware). Any cornice within HRC may be cut & removed to install door.
6. Finished Side Room Clearance (SRC): Minimum 150mm clearance required both sides of opening
7. Finished Solid Sideroom Fixing (SSF): Minimum 150mm solid fixing required both sides of opening
8. Additional charges apply to incorrectly fitted noggins

